

Karli Daps @ blindboys.org has a story on Charli Bikane, a private detective from Punjab who mysteriously disappeared. A collection of images of him posing as a wild assortment of criminals was re-photographed and compiled by Karli Daps.

Bikane's nephew, Praveen, says of these astounding images of his uncle: "As a detective these pictures were a way for him to tell people that crime doesn't pay."

More on the story here .

