

The fifth edition of Colors of Life International Photo Contest proudly supports Every Child matters www.everychildmatters.org
g

An International Photography Competition organized by Colors of Life representing an opportunity for Photographers worldwide to submit and exhibit their work In United States and Europe.

The 30 final images will be submitted to an international jury for the selection of the Competition winners: First, second and third prize (US $ 1500,1000, 500 respectively). In addition, a collective exhibition of the 30 final selected photographs in the Competition will be held in USA in different venues during 2012.

Entry Fee: US$ 40 (forty) to submit up to three images

“Every Child Matters”

Preferred subjects for photographs submitted are those related to the issues focused on by Every Child Matters, i.e. health care, education, poverty and violence and abuse, each as it involves children. The goal of this year's competition is to produce a documentary-style exhibition from the 30 finalist photographs that will be utilized by Every Child Matters in exhibitions and other events to call attention to its efforts on behalf of children.

CONTEST DETAILS

Open to all photographers.

All forms of photographic medium are eligible.

Printing and framing of selected finalist images will be provided by Colors of Life with the support of its sponsors.

Colors of Life 2011-12 International Photo Contest

Written by ZoneZero

Call for entries: May 1- June 30, 2011

Additional information and submission: www.colorsoflife.org

Event Contact Information: Email: info@colorsoflife.org