Dear Pedro, et al:

Thank you for a great surprise... a real site about photography and issues that just happens to be intelligent and has GREAT PHOTOGRAPHS. So far i have read all the articles in the magazine and the current "mona lisa" editorial. Bravo. I am currntly making my way through the gallery.

The "gift from a blind poet" is a delightful anecdote. Thanks for printing it. Most sincerely.

>From a photographer of many years who this past spring has finally bought a computer. And it's true... it is just like when I was a beginner and marveled at the image as it developed.
