This message is for Pedro Meyer. Congratulations. You have put together a great concept and website at ZoneZero. I visit frequently and find it stimulating, creative, daring, imaginative; all the things I want from places I visit and things I do. Congratulations are also due for Ed Beardsley's article. I've known Ed for many years and you selected exactly the right person for the commentary. I rarely write these kinds of notes, but feel I needed to make an exception as ZoneZero is exceptional.

Thanks. -- Ernesto Lopez.
