Pedro:

You know, I am getting back to work after a 10-week project away from my gallery.

Yesterday, I visited Zone Zero and will tell you that I am so proud of you for:

1. Staying on-line
2. Developing a community
3. Constantly improving Zone Zero
4. Staying away from hype to provide excellent content

So, you could say that I am a fan to stay...

Yes, I love your place.
