I'm registering - and I'm really happy to have been led to this site.

Photographs of my father are on Flickr, and Cathy Greenblat (whom I don't know) saw them and emailed me the link for "I Photograph to Remember." Then Daniel Meadows responded to my email sending him the link to "I Photograph to Remember" by telling me about this site and more. (Hooray for Flickr, hooray for the internet!)

I look forward to exploring the site in depth and at length....
