

Founder Director
Pedro Meyer

pedro@zonezero.com Pedro Meyer is one of the pioneers and most recognized representatives of contemporary art.

He was awarded the prestigious Guggenheim grant in 1987, the Internazionale di Cultura Citta di Anghiari in 1990, and the Premio di Cultura Citta di Anghiari in 1991.

In 1991 he published the very first CD ROM in the world that combined images and sound titled "I Photographs".

For more information visit pedromeyer.com

Technology Coordinator
ZoneZero Board Member
Alejandro Malo

alejandro@zonezero.com

Alejandro Malo was born in Mexico City in 1972. He studied Electromechanical Engineering and Communications. His articles and essays have been published, both in printed and electronic publications, amongst which "El arte de la comunicación" and "El arte de la comunicación". Since 1997 he has been a professional information technology consultant, specializing himself on cultural heritage. He joined the zonezero.com staff first as an external consultant, and as of november 2009 as webmaster.

---

Multimedia Design
Programmer
Ehekatl Hernández

ehekatl@zonezero.com

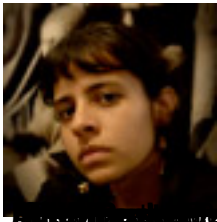

Ehekatl Hernández has a B.F.A on Graphic Design from the National School of the Arts in Mexico City and a Master's degree in Graphic Design from the National School of the Arts in Mexico City.

He has been working as a graphic designer for over 15 years. He has also worked on the development and implementation of graphic design projects for various institutions and companies.

Currently he works as a consultant for various institutions and directs two projects: Design-lab and Radiografía.

For the last eight years he was worked as a designer and web programmer for Zonezero.com and Pedro y Pablo.

---

As the Director of the Center for the Study of the History of the United States, I have the honor to introduce you to the staff of the Center. The staff of the Center is composed of a number of individuals who are dedicated to the study of the history of the United States. The staff of the Center is composed of a number of individuals who are dedicated to the study of the history of the United States.