

The Black Snapper, an online magazine for talented photographers from all over the world, dedicates a week to talented young photographers from Brazil, selected by Joana Mazza, exhibitions coordinator of the FotoRio photo festival.

Featured artists are: Gustavo Malheiros, Gabriel Jaruegui and Micaela Vermelho, Guy Veloso, Anna Kahn, Thiago Barros, Luiza Burlamaqui and André Arruda.

The Black Snapper supports the FotoRio exhibitions of these emerging photographers by showcasing them online to viewers in more than 120 countries worldwide.

The Brazilian photography week starts on September 11, at 13:00 (Amsterdam time). Don't miss it!

The Black Snapper

Written by The Black Snapper

The magazine website presents a new artist every day, in a dedicated slideshow comprising of 8 to 20 images. Weekly selections are made by guest curators.

A worldwide community of photography professionals and experts supports the project. Website url: www.theblacksnapper.com

http://www.black-snapper.com/magazine/articles/black-snapper/index.php